677 Sommers Bay Road Murdunna TAS

Sommers Bay is truly a hidden gem. With sparkling blue waters, white sand and orange-hued granite rocks surrounding the shoreline who could argue anything less.

The suburb of Murdunna boasts is a beautiful coastal walk, new boat ramp and marina, plus a stylish general store. It has moved from being a sleepy shack community to a more gentrified permanent home area where owners can easily commute to Hobart for work. Community friendship is also at its heart with monthly BBQ held in the local park.

The land package is approximately 878 square metres and includes a Council approved shed. The current owners have used this space for many enjoyable weekends over several years. For the new owner's wanting to build a home or beach house the shed provides an ideal starting base (stca). Views from the block are breathtaking and with a
